Services Agreement

This agreement is made between the Provider and the Client named on page 2.

1. Services. The Provider will perform the services described in Schedule A with due care and skill, using suitably qualified staff, and will keep the Client informed of progress.
2. Fees. The Client will pay the fees in Schedule B within thirty days of each invoice. Late amounts carry interest at two percent above the base rate from the due date.
3. Term. This agreement starts on the effective date and continues for twelve months, after which it renews for further periods of twelve months unless either party gives sixty days written notice before the end of the current period.
4. Confidentiality. Each party keeps the other party's confidential information secret and uses it only to perform this agreement. This clause survives termination.
5. Liability. Neither party is liable for indirect or consequential loss. Each party's total liability in any year is limited to the fees paid in the previous twelve months.
6. Termination. Either party may end this agreement at once by written notice if the other commits a material breach and does not remedy it within thirty days of notice.

7. Notices. Notices are given in writing to the addresses set out in Schedule C.

8. Assignment. Neither party may assign this agreement without the other's consent.

9. Entire agreement. This agreement and its schedules are the whole agreement between the parties and replace every earlier understanding about its subject matter.

10. Governing law. This agreement is governed by the law of the place in Schedule C.
